

Plagiarism

Presenting the work of others is not permitted. This includes word for word copying, without the appropriate referencing, submitting work which has been written by some-one else on the learner's behalf or submitting another learners work in whole or in part.

If there is doubt about honesty you may be disqualified from that assessment and may have to submit a supervised closed book exam.

,